MODEL PLANT IS BEING PLANNED

Inspection Tours Reveal
Other Plants' Errors;
Salem Profits

It is preliminary steps go forward on schedule. The contract for the new city disposal plant will be awarded sometime in April, and ground will be broken in May.

The plans for the new plant, following the return of Service Director C. A. Coughlin and City Engineer F. S. Barckhoff from a middle western inspection trip, Barckhoff announced last night from Chicago, that the new plant will be a model plant in the west from Indianapolis.

Plans call for a "star" plant to be constructed here and the service department with its divisional department, the engineering department, says to have a plant without any other kind.

By visiting all of the outstanding plants in the state, the city officials have eliminated error and fault known in other plants from the Salem plant.

One of the main objects of the inspection tour was to adopt the best features of the process of the other plants, and to eliminate the bad features. The plan is to have a plant which will be a model in the state.

The various officials of the administration have set as their goal a "star" plant which will be a model in the state. The plan is to have a plant which will be a model in the state.

Borah May Force Candidates Into Open On Dry Issue

Washington, Jan. 12.—Republican presidential candidates may be forced out in the open on the prohibition question, if Senator Borah (R) of Idaho carries out his promise to Democratic senators that he will quizz every one of the candidates of his own party on his attitude toward the 18th amendment and the Volstead act.

Borah's promise was made at the height of an animated wet and dry debate in the senate and followed his demand that Senator Copeland (D) of New York make clear the attitude of Governor Smith of New York on the question.

Senators Curtis and Willis of Kansas and Ohio, respectively, both avowed president aspirants, were in the senate at the time, Curtis being seated less than 10 feet away from Borah. The Idahoan apparently was in no hurry, however, to carry his promise into immediate execution with respect to these two candidates.

In the course of the debate Borah was asked by Senator McNeely (D) of West Virginia if he would place the Republican candidates on record as to whether they would put "an ex-distiller and brewer in charge of prohibition enforcement."

"I am glad you asked that question," Borah replied. "That will be a very pertinent question. I will remember it."

BLUE LAW GROUP LOSES IN COURT

Tuscarawas Grand Jurors
Refuse To Indict 3
Movie Operators

Dover, O., Jan. 12.—Sunday observance forces suffered their first defeat in the "blue law" controversy since Nov. 12, when Tuscarawas county grand jury reported today, and refused to indict three Dover motion picture theater proprietors for operating on Sunday.

George Christ, Roscoe Seidel and Chester Huppich had been bound over to the grand jury for violating the city ordinance against Sunday entertainments. Joe Giphart, one of Christ's operators, also was charged, but the grand jury "no billed" all of the accusations.

The next step is a hearing in Justice Cleus Weaver's court set for next Friday afternoon. The three movie men must answer to charges of violating the state "habitual offender" act, since they have operated their shows on Sunday a number of times during the last month.

Justice Weaver is expected to submit the cases to the probate court. Conviction of the "habitual offender" charge carries a penitentiary sentence and church people have announced that they will ask the most drastic action possible.

MOVE TO DRESS UP SUGAR TREE ALLEY STARTED

Paving of Alley Sought
By Business Men; Mayor
Favors Plan

REST ROOM FOR WOMEN WANTED

Service Clubs May Be Requested
To Direct
Fund Campaign

Two improvements which have never before reached the formative stage may be requested of city council in a short time.

These improvements are the paving of Sugar Tree alley, and establishment of a women's public rest room under city regulation.

Discussion of the rest room proposition at the board of health meeting Wednesday night showed that the members are enthusiastic for any such plan.

Two ways for action are open. It was learned at City Hall today. One is for council to pass legislation for the rest room. The other is to have the service clubs, or other organizations, acting with the board of health direct a campaign for funds for such a room.

A number of downtown business and professional men today privately expressed themselves favorably on the paving of Sugar Tree alley, and agitation is at a point where a petition may be presented to council asking the improvement.

Inasmuch as Mayor Phil Hiddleston's pre-election platform contained a plank favoring improvement of Sugar Tree and the alley south of Main st., it is certain that the administration will do all in its power to push the project.

The mayor, questioned in regard to such paving today, said that he believes it would mean a new artery for traffic which would reduce Main st. congestion at least 15 per cent, as well as being of great value to merchants and other business men for loading and unloading of merchandise.

Some business men have urged the paving for more than a dozen years, but never before has agitation reached its present enthusiastic stage.

EXECUTION STAY ILLEGAL, STATE ATTORNEY RULES

Justice Levy's Order Illegal and Can't Act
To Stay Execution, Says Ottinger; Up
To Warden Now, He Adds

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Mrs. Ruth Snyder and her paramour, Henry Judd Gray, must die in the electric chair tonight for the brutal murder of Mrs. Snyder's husband, Albert Snyder, art editor, unless Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing, of his own volition, desires to delay the execution until tomorrow night or Saturday night.

Attorney-General Albert Ottinger formally announced at 1 o'clock this afternoon that he had reached a formal decision that the order of Supreme Court Justice Aaron Levy staying Mrs. Snyder's execution until tomorrow "was illegal and cannot act to stay the execution."

"The purport of the decision is that I hold that Justice Levy's order was illegal and cannot stay the execution set for tonight unless the warden of Sing Sing, of his own volition, desires to delay the execution until later in the week," Ottinger announced.

In view of the Ottinger decision, it was reported at the capital that Warden Lawes, later in the day, would issue a statement saying whether he would carry out his original intention of sending Mrs. Snyder and Gray to their death tonight.

Up To Warden

"It will be up to Warden Lawes to say whether Mrs. Snyder and Gray are to die in the chair tonight," Ottinger declared.

Supreme Court Justice Aaron J. Levy, when informed in open court at New York that Atty. Gen. Albert Ottinger had decided to request him to vacate his order of last night staying the execution of Ruth Snyder, indicated that he would not comply with the request.

"I don't care what Ottinger says," the justice remarked, and continued examining some papers on his desk. He would make no further comment.

Justice Levy's order was granted at request of Mrs. Snyder's counsel, Atty. Edgar F. Hazleton, on the ground that she was an important witness in a civil suit over $95,000 life insurance which, it was alleged, Mrs. Snyder took out on the life of her husband, Albert Snyder, a few months before he was brutally murdered in his Queens county home.

New York, Jan. 12.—Ruth Brown Snyder will not die in the electric chair tonight. She has been granted a stay of execution by Supreme Court Justice Aaron J. Levy of New York City.

The stay is until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, 11 hours after the execution of Henry Judd Gray, her former sweetheart, is scheduled to take place.

The eleventh hour stay was granted on the plea of her lawyers that the blonde woman slayer's presence is required as a witness in the litigation over the insurance of $95,000 left by her husband, Albert Snyder, whom she and Gray were convicted of murdering with a sash-weight while he slept in his pretty suburban home in Queens Village.

May Save Gray

Gray, too, may be snatched from the clutches of the electric chair. Early today desperate moves were being made by his attorneys to delay his execution, set for 11 o'clock tonight.

Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing prison, where Mrs. Snyder and Gray are confined in the death cells, was at a loss as to how to proceed. It was learned, however, that he is seeking the advice of Governor Alfred E. Smith and other authorities.

No Precedent Found

In some legal quarters it was contended that only an order from the presiding justice of any of the four parts of the appellate division of the supreme court could stay the execution. The state, it was suggested, might ask an appellate division judge to vacate the order signed by Justice Levy.

FORCE BUCYRUS
TO IMPROVE ITS SEWAGE SYSTEM

Columbus, O., Jan. 12.—City officials and city engineers of Bucyrus will be here tomorrow to attend the preliminary hearing in regards to the erection of a sewage disposal plant at Bucyrus, to be held by the Ohio Public Health council.

According to the health officials here, Bucyrus has 20 individual sewers that empty into the Sandusky. Construction of a trunk sewer that will carry all the waste products to the disposal plant that is to be erected, is asked by health officials.

Bucyrus was brought into this action by the complaints of residents of Upper Sandusky, a town 15 miles below them on the river.

Health officials here said that the present plan of sewage disposal in operation at Bucyrus was a menace to public health.

PAYING THE LEGAL PRICE

"Campaigns have been waged successfully in Ohio several times of late in an effort to abolish capital punishment."

Whenever there is a legal forfeiture of a life at state's prison it always arouses discussion. Officials are criticized. Oftentimes the criticism is unjust. Too frequently it includes officials who have no hand in the affair.

Human life is precious. Once taken, it cannot be restored. Naturally, relatives and friends of men condemned to die make earnest efforts to arrest the process of law. It is quite proper for them to use all of the resources at hand to prevent execution of some loved one.

Officials charged with hearing appeals in execution cases anticipate that a fight will be made to prevent carrying out of the death decree. They give the relatives of the condemned individual ample time in which to present their arguments. They meet these relatives sympathetically.

It is no small question which confronts the governor and the board of clemency members. Requests to commute death sentences to life imprisonment terms involve important questions. Only the governor has power to commute a death sentence. The clemency board holds hearings.

But there is before the clemency board and the governor at all times the realization that the condemned person has had his chance in the courts—that the legal machinery of the state has functioned, heard evidence, observed the law—done everything, in fact, which it is possible to do to insure the accused an impartial trial.

Officials who give their serious attention to appeals for clemency for condemned men, who observe their oath, who try to do the right thing, are entitled to the cordial support of the public. They should not be subject to the carping criticism of sentimentalists. They are good public servants when they meet unpleasant tasks with courage. Their duty is to the public. Their oath is to observe and enforce the law.

When they remember their obligation and, with high honor, are faithful to their trust, they are good public servants.

Only recently a young man was executed for murder. There are others in the death house at the state penitentiary. The law in Ohio says when a person is convicted of murder in the first degree, and the jury does not recommend mercy, the death penalty must be invoked by the trial judge. He has no alternative. The alternative rests solely with the jury.

Some states have abolished capital punishment. The thought of legal execution is repugnant. But isn't it one of the safest ways to curb murder? Convicts have repeatedly told enforcement officers that the shadow of the electric chair is all that kept them from killing victims of crimes.

Crime is on the increase everywhere, police statistics disclose. Then, if a state has a deterrent in the form of capital punishment, isn't it best to let well enough alone and permit the law to take its course?

What Others Say

GEORGE WASHINGTON

It is not for an Englishman to meddle with American estimates of American heroes, but the celebrated "Aging of the pendulum" seems to be operating rather harshly against George Washington. In reaction from the sanctified biography prepared at the beginning of the last century by Mason Weems, complete with cherry tree, hatchet, and all manner of improving but baseless anecdotes, the later school of American historians seems to have swung over to the business of flabbergasting the bourgeois by representing Washington as a sort of 18th century Babbitt who hundered into every success he ever achieved.

The first volume of Rupert Hughes' "Life of George Washington" created no small comment in the United States earlier this year, but Reuters' cable extracts and impressions of the second suggest that Washington's newest biographer is "out" to astonish some of his readers rather than to do strict justice to his subject. "Remove from Washington's life his career as soldier and statesman," we are assured, "and there remains little to distinguish him from the average successful business man of his day and ours." Remove, in short, all that gives George Washington a place in history—and the result is not unattainably negligible. By the same method remove Tolstoy's novels and Tolstoy's mature life, and there remains a dissipated young officer who, as his own diary admits, spent idle hours in admiring the set of his own mustaches in a mirror.

As history, the method will not quite do—even as a way of twisting the tail of "Big Bill" Thompson, of Chicago, and his super-patriotic followers. If it is not worse than Weems—we judge merely by the cable extracts—it is at any rate just as bad. And it is to be wished that both sides to a silly controversy would settle down to a more serious conception of such history as belongs to the great republic on the other side of the Atlantic.—Manchester Guardian.

HABITS THAT CAUSE NEEDLESS ILLNESS

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D.

Habits detrimental to health are closely related to the place of residence and the occupation. What do I mean by this?

You cannot imagine a farmer, a stonemason, or a truck driver suffering from want of exercise. Most country dwellers are forced to exercise.

On the other hand, the city dweller is in danger of neglecting exercise. He rides to his business in a motor car or street car. His work is sedentary, not requiring any energetic physical exercise.

In general, then, inhabitants of the city are likely to suffer the ill-effects of underexercise. Of course there is an occasional drone in the country—they are found everywhere.

Let us consider another hygiene measure—the care of the teeth. In this matter the city dwellers have the advantage. More stress is placed on dental care. The schools teach its importance, active health officials stress it, the dental clinics provide it.

Conditions in the country districts are improving. It won't be long before the farm children and, as they grow up, the adult farmer will be just as careful about his teeth. But at present dental care is more neglected in the rural districts than in the towns.

Constipation is a more common affliction of farmwives than of city housewives. The greatest reason for this is the inconvenience and discomfort of the rural toilets. As modern plumbing is introduced into farm houses, this symptom of neglect will disappear.

Exercise will keep teeth and intestinal cleanliness are essential to health. Nobody can be said to have good health who is without them.

The failure to take daily exercise is a great mistake. To begin with, neglect of exercise is likely to be followed pretty soon by an unpleasant increase in weight. Excessive overweight is a real menace to health.

Lots of folks think they are exercising because they do their own housework, or saunter to work. Any exercise that is as easy as the movement of a wheel on ball bearings is not exercise at all. There must be friction effort, sweat production, to make certain the exercise is of the right quality.

From bad teeth, infected teeth there comes the absorption of poisons. There is danger of rheumatism, diseased glands and even heart disease. These may be the effects of dental neglect.

To avoid constipation with all its evils, there must be a regular daily habit of attention to the bowels. In addition there must be proper eating of the right foods. Excessive fat eating is a common fault, one productive of constipation.

No matter where you live—in city or country—take systematic daily vigorous exercise. Keep your teeth clean and free from cavities. This will take at least two visits a year to the dentist. Do not permit your system to become clogged.

Attention to these things will add to your expectancy of life. It will add a lot.

Tomorrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble

FRIDAY, JANUARY 13.

Nothing in the world is nobler or rarer than a truly devoted friendship.—Aron.

The planetary aspects for this day are rather negative unless as they apply to personal activities. It is a day fostering friendship, courtship, social and domestic alliances, as well as artistic and time for pleasure and amusement, although all those business relations pertaining to women and the home flourish.

Those whose birthday it is may make their own way during the year under friendly and harmonious relations, although they may find that their leaning may be toward pleasure and social or romantic activities and enjoyments. If in business, handling clothing, jewelry or feminine belongings, it should flourish. A child born on this day should have many social and artistic graces and talents, and may lean toward these and the pursuit of pleasure and friendship.

Notable Nativities: Salmon P. Chase, Lincoln Cabinet officer.

Desertion Charges Are Removed

Washington, Jan. 12.—Charges of desertion against more than a score of tottering veterans of the Civil war are removed in bills which the house sent to the senate today.

The bills were introduced, members said, because the aged veterans wanted to spare the feelings of descendants who might otherwise discover a blot on their family tree.

Rep. Blanton (D) of Texas, questioned the wisdom of the house's action, but did not oppose passage of the measures.

KNIFE WIELDER ATTACKS GIRLS

Columbus, Jan. 12.—Police today were investigating attacks on two young girls who were wounded when set upon by a man with a knife, in the west end of town last night.

The victims are Thelma Weaver, 13, and Lula Thompson, 16. They were attacked on separate occasions, while walking in west end streets.

Both said their assailant came from behind and slashed at their necks and shoulders with a razor or knife. Police believe the attacks rest on a case of mistaken identity. Mrs. Jack Carpenter, recently separated from her husband, told detectives that he visited her several days ago and that when she refused to live with him he drew a knife and cut part of her clothing away before she could escape.

Since both attacks were in the vicinity of the Carpenter home and both the victims are of much the same size and appearance as Mrs. Carpenter, authorities today scouted the idea that a "ripper" is at large in the west end. Carpenter was arrested and is held for investigation.

GAS FUMES MAKE MANY ILL, CLAIM

Ohio Utilities Commission Orders Company to Alleviate Condition

Columbus, Jan. 12.—Informed that hundreds of residents, Lima, Ada and Wapakoneta were affected by sulphuric fumes issuing from natural gas consumed in their homes, the State Utilities Commission, it was announced today, instructed officials of the West Ohio Gas Company, headquarters at Lima, to "immediately take the necessary steps to alleviate this condition."

Users of this gas, transmitted through the lines of the West Ohio Gas company, complained. It was stated that the offensive odor from the gas made numerous persons very sick and that a number of them were taken to hospitals for treatment or sent out of town to recover from the ill effects of inhaling the fumes.

A number of residents of Kenton, the commission was told, threatened to file suits for damages against the company because of the sulphuric fumes.

The commission today was in receipt of a telegram from Emmet R. Curtin, Lima, president of the West Ohio Gas company, stating that Ira L. Neely, Wooster, vice president and manager of the Ohio Public Service company, was "taking a very firm stand" on the matter over the objectionable gas had been transmitted to the West Ohio company, lines, "said that the gas furnished from the forest field had been cut off." Curtin said this "will eliminate the trouble."

Dorchester, Eng., Jan. 12.—Thomas Hardy, noted English novelist, who died last night, will be buried in the family vault at Stinsford, a little village near Dorchester, it was understood today. It is known that the writer expressed the wish that his body be interred there amid the scenes he loved so well.

Hardy, who was one of the few remaining great Victorians, was revered by many as the most famous English writer of his time. He was 87 years of age at the time of his death and had spent his entire life in Wessex.

SHARP EXCHANGE BETWEEN PERSHING AND WILSON IS REVEALED; GENERAL WON

Washington, Jan. 12.—Military and diplomatic circles were stirred today by revelations of a sharp telegraphic exchange between President Wilson and Gen. John J. Pershing, commander in chief of the American expeditionary forces, during a critical phase of the decisive western front struggle in the World war.

Wilson crossed Pershing in the latter's plans for independent American combat units in the allied line, but the Pershing idea ultimately prevailed after an exchange of cables with the White House.

The backstage story of Pershing's uphill struggle for independent American field units, as related in the February Cosmopolitan magazine by Brig. Gen. Henry J. Reilly, has already been placed in the official archives of the war college's historical office, where the official army history of the World war is being written.

Reilly, a close friend of Pershing and former editor of the Army and Navy Journal here, was commander of the 149th field artillery, an Illinois regiment, in the celebrated Rainbow division during the World war. He has been in Europe several months assembling material.

The strategic plans of the French Commander Nivelle, Reilly relates, called upon the American forces "primarily for laborers, railroad workers, carpenters, miners, chauffeurs."

"Such fighting troops as were to be sent were to be fed into the depleted battalions of the French army."

Pershing resisted these plans at every turn, insisting to the end upon American units under their own officers assigned to their own sectors of the battle front. Twice, the question was carried directly to Washington by the British and French command. On each occasion, Pershing won.

Seated in his office in the War department today, Pershing, who has been furnished advance proofs of the magazine account, firmly declined to reveal that choice morsel of history for which the world capitals are so eager, the text of his message to Woodrow Wilson.

U. S. DISREGARDS NORWEGIAN DEBT

Norway Having Trouble Getting Old Account Squared Up

Washington, Jan. 12.—If your son was stranded in a strange town a long way from home and you telegraphed a friend there to pay his hotel bill and buy him a railroad ticket home, you would naturally be expected to send him a check as soon as you could find out how much it cost.

If you waited a year without repaying him and didn't do it then until he had sent you several reminders, your friend would have a right to feel that his friendship had been imposed on him. And he would be justified not only in insisting on getting his money back, but in interest on it as well.

In September 1918 when Russia was in the throes of revolution, following the overthrow of the czarist government, the United States government requested the Norwegian government to take charge of the protection of American interests in Moscow, stating that it would reimburse the Norwegian government for the expenses incurred in carrying out this request. Now, nearly 10 years afterwards, Norway is having a hard time getting the old account squared up.

The government of the United States which poured billions of dollars into Europe during and after the World war, millions of which it never expects to get back, is still quibbling over paying Norway a paltry $4,000 on account of this act of friendship.

To try to save the face of the United States, President Coolidge has just sent a special message to congress recommending an appropriation to wipe out this claim. Two years ago he sent a similar message. The matter was referred to the foreign affairs committee of the house of representatives and that was the last heard of it.

SNYDER CASE

Apparently there is no precedent in New York state for court interference with the execution of a death sentence to insure the presence of the person in the trial of a civil action.

From Albany came word that Atty. Gen. Ottinger was "taking a few hours to think the matter over."

Don't Want to Die

Mrs. Snyder awoke shortly after 9 o'clock after a fitful night's sleep. Before she went to bed last night she was in a highly nervous state and her eyes were red from weeping. She had said repeatedly: "I don't want to die—I'm too young to die. And I'm afraid they're going to kill me."

Something about the atmosphere of the inside of the prison caused the murderers to "snuff" that there had been a favorable development, as far as she was concerned, and she seemed a little more cheerful.

Gray was his usual calm self. Quite serenely he ate a good breakfast and then turned to the reading of his Bible.

Execution Plans Proceed

New York, Jan. 12.—Despite a court order staying the execution of Ruth Snyder, the authorities at Sing Sing prison went forward today with their preparations to electrocute her and her former sweetheart, Henry Judd Gray, at the originally set hour of 11 o'clock tonight.

Not until he is definitely told to do otherwise by state officials, whose advice he has sought, will Warden E. Lawes change the hour of the double execution.

In ordering Mrs. Snyder's execution stayed, Supreme Court Justice Aaron Levy directed Warden Lawes to show cause at 10 o'clock tomorrow why he should not produce the condemned woman as a witness in a suit involving the $95,000 of insurance on the life of her husband.

Must Die This Week

"I have asked the advice of Attorney Albert Ottinger and Dr. Raymond F. C. Kieb," state commissioner of corrections, said Warden Lawes this morning. "If they agree that Justice Levy has a right to postpone the executions then they will be postponed."

"If, however, Mr. Ottinger and Mr. Kieb rule that Justice Levy has no jurisdiction in this matter, then Mrs. Snyder and Gray will be electrocuted tonight."

Lawes further stated that if the executions are put off later than Saturday night, the trial judge, Justice Townsend Scudder, will have to set a new date for the electrocutions. The original order specified that the condemned pair must be executed the week of January 9.

The warden said that, in such event, Justice Scudder would probably postpone the executions a month.

ALL EQUIPMENT REMOVED FROM MINE PROPERTY

Gallipolis, Jan. 12.—As a result of the Ohio coal strike which has now been in effect for more than nine months, the Pomeroy and Athens Coal company today served notice on owners of the land on which their mines are located that they have permanently discontinued operation in this vicinity and will remove all equipment.

The mines are located on Thomas Fork near Pomeroy. Owners of the coal lands filed suit today to prevent removal of machinery from the mines, claiming this is a violation of the terms under which the land was leased.

Ohio Youth Denies Charge of Peeping

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 12.—Protesting that he was hunting skunks and not "peeping in windows" Francis S. Linn, 20-year-old Harvard junior, of South Zanesville, O., was arrested early today in the fashionable Larchwood section, charged with disturbing the peace. The young man was taken into custody when complaint was made that a man was acting queer in the backyards of Larchwood.

INDUSTRIALS ACTIVE
New York Jan. 12.—Strength and activity in the industrial stocks featured the stock market at the opening today. General Electric jumped 3 points to 138. International Nickel was up 1 1/2 at 100. General Motors up 1 at 122. Steel Foundries up 1/2 at 133 1/2. U. S. Steel unchanged at 69 1/2. Erie common up 1/2 at 157 1/2. Erie common up 1/2 at 157 1/2.

In anticipation of a decline in the volume of brokers' loans to be shown in the weekly report of the Federal Reserve board and in response to further short-covering and speculative buying of the industrial and specialty stocks prices moved upward sharply in the first period. General Electric, International Nickel, and other speculative leaders advanced from 1 to 6 points, and numerous fractional gains were recorded in the active steel, motor, and oil stocks.

Attention was given to the financial disengagement of forward orders for the monthly report of the steel corporation. December's gain of $18,000,000 was the largest in more than a year, and buying demand is expected to extend to a wide range of important industries this year. Oil and copper companies with Mexican government leaders, and the general stabilization of the oil industry is in prospect.

Houston led the oil with a 4 point jump to 151 1/2. Marland and the Pan American were firm. Radio was in large volume between 100 and 101. General Motors and U. S. Steel gained more than a point in the first half hour, and most of the day's motor stocks added fractionally to market values.

Treasury officials commented on the soundness of "holiday money" in returning to the banks this year, thus explaining the usual tightening up of the call loan market in the first part of the week. Easier money conditions will, in their opinion, prevail in the first quarter of the year, and funds will be plentiful for all legitimate purposes. All sections of the industrial stock market were irregular in the second hour. Call money 4 per cent.

S-4 PROBE FIGHT ON PARTY LINES

Insurgents Line Up With Administration For Civilian Probe

Washington, Jan. 12.—President Coolidge's request for a civilian inquiry into the S-4 submarine disaster was made a "party issue" in the senate today while Democrats fought for a separate senatorial investigation into numerous recent naval losses.

The drawing of party lines over the S-4 crash was revealed when the senate naval affairs committee met to consider the resolution, adopted by the house, which would create a presidential commission of civilian experts to probe the disaster. Contrary to their attitude upon similar questions in the past, the Republican insurgents were reported lining up with the administration ranks in opposing the Democratic program.

The Democrats meanwhile held out for a senatorial inquiry. They attacked the proposed civilian investigation as an attempt to "wash" the navy, because the commission would be appointed by the president on recommendations of the secretary of the navy.

The insurgent viewpoint was expressed by Senator Howell (R) of Nebraska, a member of the naval affairs committee.

"I don't think it necessary to have a senate investigation at this time," said Howell. "I am inclined to follow the plan adopted by the house. If this proposed inquiry should prove unsatisfactory there will be time enough then to have the senate act."

COURT NEWS

Accuses Wife

Charges that his wife "frankly informed him that she had another man she thought more of than she did of him and that this man had more money than he had and that she would have nothing more to do with him," are made in the divorce petition filed in common pleas court by Mike Winkler, through his counsel K. L. Coburn, of Salem against his wife Eleanor M. Winkler, said to be residing at 1714 East 79th street, Cleveland.

The couple were married May 7, 1921, and have no children. The charge of gross neglect of duty is made against the defendant.

Cruelty Charged

In the petition for divorce filed by Effie A. Burns of East Palestine against her husband Pete Burns of Elkton, and whom she married Oct. 25, last, it is charged that Burns entered her home Dec. 5 last, while she was in bed with her children by a former marriage, pulled the bed coming from the bed, seized Mrs. Burns by the neck, choked her, threw her belonging from the house onto the porch, and then put the plaintiff out of the house before she was clothed.

The petition also charges that Burns struck and choked his wife Nov. 24, about a month after they were married.

It is related in the petition that after Mrs. Burns returned to their home that Burns again ordered her out of the home on Christmas Day, and threatened her with violence. The petition for the plaintiff has been filed by Attorney Cecil K. Scott of Salem.

LOANS up to $500

Every dream has a meaning all its own—so say the believers. To dream that you have more money than Andy Gump is a pretty sure sign you will get some at The City Loan whenever you want it. And to dream that some terrible creature is hot on your trail probably means that your doctor and merchant want their money, and that you should borrow it here, pay all bills and have but one creditor.

Financial worries are often the cause of much troubled sleep and distress so whenever you awaken with a jump and find you're still among the living, rejoice, and come to the City Loan and get all the money you need to square up.

AT THE STATE

A daring drama, unusual in theme and treatment, skillfully directed and superbly acted, "The Crystal Cup," First National's production of Gertrude Atherton's novel, which opened last night at the State, is easily one of the finest pictures seen here in many a month.

"The Crystal Cup" goes into the intricate and intriguing matter of psycho-analysis and the interesting discoveries of Freud. It reflects the turbulent soul of a sensitive woman, oppressed by an unhappy experience of early youth, which affects her conduct and outlook on life for years.

It affords Dorothy Mackaill, featured in the feminine part, her greatest screen role, a role in which the actress acquires herself so creditably as to place her in the first rank of motion picture artists.

Jack Mulhall brings his personality and ability to the serious role of "Geoffrey," in which he is featured opposite Miss Mackaill. Rockcliffe Fellowes' interpretation of the brilliant, successful novelist is a finely-drawn and carefully studied bit of acting. Jane Winton, Elythe Chapman, Gladys Selwynne are excellent in supporting roles.

Friday and Saturday the Gold Dust Twins, radio entertainers, will appear in a special act in addition to the picture program.

AT THE GRAND

Buck Jones and his famed horse, Silver Buck, scores another triumph at the Grand with the showing of "Good as Gold," a western thriller that is crammed full of suspense, thrills, stunts of daring and danger, and all in a story that is of fascinating interest. Add to this a background made up of the wonders of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, and you have a picture that is nearly perfect entertainment.

Buck Jones, in the role of a son robbed of his inheritance, a fabulously rich gold mine by claim jumpers, gives a fine performance that is made up of hard riding, daring swinging among the chasms of the Grand Canyon over vast depths, and touches of humor that caused the audience to thrill with suspense one moment and laugh the next.

Frances Lee in the role of the girl who inherits the stolen mine makes a beautiful heroine. The plot of the story is full of unexpected twists and holds the attention throughout.

Motherhood

"Mother's Friend" is a comfort to expectant mothers. Externally applied, it relieves prenatal distress by relaxing tight tissues and muscles. Its daily use makes the skin soft and pliable.

Start using "Mother's Friend" tonight! It is sold by all drug stores. Write for free booklet on "Things to Know Before Baby Comes" (sent in plain envelope). Bradfield Regulator Co., Dept. 27, Atlanta, Ga.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, Jan. 12.—Fashions may come and fashions may go, but the ensemble goes on forever, and this season it is the four-piece one which has come out on top, because it provides the biggest labor-saving device discovered up till now by the busy, smart woman.

For clothes, however charming they may be, mean work, and the days are short, especially when one is travelling, so the fashion dictators have hit upon a four-piece ensemble for "all-day wear." All of the four pieces may be worn together, or in a group of two or three. Each item is in perfect accord with all the others, in line, in material, detail and character. Hats, shoes, stockings and all other accessories are entirely suitable to any part of the ensemble when worn alone.

Usually the four-piece ensemble is composed of coat, jacket, waist and skirt. Many women expand it by having several houses and perhaps a slip-on sweater so that the ensemble has more variety and greater usefulness without in any way losing its priceless quality of complete harmony.

Jeanne Lanvin is showing an exquisite ensemble in black diagonal kasha-bure. The coat has a dropped shoulder-line with a yoke in the back. The skirt is a double wrap-around and the straight jacket buttons down the front. There is a simple jumper blouse of grey crepe de Chine and the big scarf which ties in a bow in the front is also of grey crepe de Chine. Another four-piece model may be worn for almost any daytime occasion in town for it comes in satiny-finish broadcloth of plum-brown. The coat is of seven-eighths length and very straight in line, with cuffs of beaver as well as the full-length revers. Under the coat is a cardigan jacket banded with beaver-colored crepe and a beige crepe de Chine jabot on the blouse is draped over the jacket.

Simple fabrics of fine quality and discreet colors are best for the four-piece ensemble. An ideal shade for winter, and one which will surely be smart in the early spring, is navy blue.

THE HOME KITCHEN

—By Jeannette Young Norton—

Every egg, no matter how it is cooked, takes the place of two ounces of meat. Pound for pound, eggs have about as much protein and fat as the average of the common kinds of fish, poultry, meat and sea foods. The combination of eggs and milk in most any dish form the balanced food good for old and young. Even if eggs are high in price there is no waste to consider.

Eggs in the Nest

Boil six eggs hard; cool them and remove the shells. Cut the whites in strips. Mash the yolks in the bowl with four tablespoons of minced cold boiled chicken, two tablespoons of melted butter, a tablespoonful of chopped parsley, salt and pepper. Shape the mixture into egg-shaped ovals; place in the center of a hot dish, heap the white egg strips about them. Then cover with a good brown sauce. Garnish with sprays of fresh watercress.

English Monkey

Soak a cupful of bread crumbs in a cupful of rich milk for 15 minutes. Melt two level tablespoons of butter in a saucepan or chafing dish. Add a half cupful of rich dairy cheese shaved in thin slices. When it is melted add the bread crumbs, and when hot add pepper, salt and a beaten egg. Cook for three minutes, stirring slowly. Then turn over toasted bread or crackers.

Midgets

Butter as many ramekin dishes as are needed. Break two fresh eggs into each. Dust with pepper, salt, a teaspoonful of chopped chives and parsley. Add four tablespoons of milk to each, then cover with a teaspoonful of grated cheese mixed with a tablespoonful of crumbs. Dot with little lumps of butter and bake a delicate brown. Serve while hot.

Oyster Omelet

Stew one dozen oysters in their own liquor until the beads curl. Add two lumps of butter rolled in flour. Boil up once, then take out the oysters and chop them. Return to the sauce and add a little more flour if not thick enough. Set where it will keep hot, but not cook, while you make a six-egg omelet in the usual way. When the omelet is fried and folded over, remove to a hot dish and pour the oyster sauce over it. Garnish with parsley and lemon quarters.

You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.? For more than 100 years it has been giving relief in many forms of skin disease. Thousands of letters of gratitude prove its worth. "I feel so happy for what S.S.S. has done for me that I want others to know about it. I suffered twenty long years from eczema. At times the itching was unbearable. During that time, I used all kinds of salves without receiving any real benefit. After taking six bottles of S.S.S., I was cured of this dreadful disease. I recommend S.S.S. to anyone suffering from eczema, because I cannot praise it enough for what it has done for me." Cleophas Forte, Soldiers and Sailors Home, Quincy, Ill. S.S.S. is purely vegetable. of ICE

this winter

THE sparkle of Baby's eyes—the tinkle of his laugh—the chubbyness of his little arms and legs—how you delight in his rosy health! Yet it may be greatly menaced this winter, unless his food is protected every day with ice. Food put in window boxes becomes contaminated by dirt—left in a warm room it rapidly deteriorates, becoming unsafe for a young child to eat. A well iced refrigerator is the only safeguard.

Milk, especially, because it is his mainstay of life, must be kept free from bacteria. It may not actually spoil but unless protected every minute in the day with ice, it soon deteriorates, losing much of its food value, so vital to Baby's health.

Don't let the weather man trick you, just because it is cold outside, into neglecting your baby's health. The risk is too great when it may be avoided for a cost of only a few cents a day.

TEX. DEMOCRATS STRUGGLE OVER LEADERS FOR '28

Hear First Rumblings In Fight to Control The 40 Delegates

Austin, Texas, Jan. 12.—The first rumblings of the forthcoming fight to control the "faithful forty" Texas delegates to the 1928 Democratic national convention are being echoed in the announcements of prominent political leaders in the state.

State Senator Tom Love, assistant secretary of the treasury in the Wilson administration, and one of the leaders of the McAdoo forces in the latter's two attempts to secure his party's endorsement as presidential candidate, recently issued a statement to the effect that he will work to have a resolution introduced into every precinct convention in the state pledging the Texas delegation to oppose any "wet" for the nomination.

While Love's statement declares that "any wet" is persona non grata to him, it is generally accepted as the senator's way of saying he is "agin" Governor Alfred E. Smith, who is believed to be "front running" the field in the Democratic presidential nomination race. The statement had the wholehearted endorsement of the Anti-Saloon league forces in the state, and members of the W. C. T. U. saw much to approve in it.

Love is criticized. There was considerable criticism of the Love statement, however, from many who sincerely believe that prohibition, or any candidate's stand on it, should not be made the test of Democracy.

Albert S. Burleson, of Austin, postmaster-general in the Wilson cabinet, is an outspoken champion of the Smith cause in Texas. Former United States Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey is very partial to the New York governor, and Thomas W. Gregory, attorney-general of the United States in the Wilson cabinet, is favorably disposed to the Smith candidacy. They are three pretty big men in Texas—men of the "old guard"—who have been temporarily shelved by the younger Democrats, headed by Governor Dan Moody.

Bailey, in a recent speech, declared that those who would make prohibition a test of Democracy have no place in the party. The former senator called these people "purbled reformers," and pointed out that "if the dyes have the right to bolt the party because of a wet nominee, the wets have the same right. Under such circumstances, it is useless to hold a convention at all."

"Former Jim" Ferguson, once impeached governor of the state, has committed himself to the candidacy of Senator James A. Reed, Missouri's fiery favorite son.

Uninstructed Delegates. Politicians here do not believe that either Reed or Smith will ask for an instructed delegation from Texas. Rather they are expected to ask for an uninstructed delegation of "representative Democrats," unbound by the Anti-Saloon league and the W. C. T. U. This, in the final analysis, is exactly what Tom Love wants.

A club already has been formed, and the preliminaries are under way for the campaign for an uninstructed delegation. Headquarters for the club are in Wichita Falls. Love and other ardent "drys" characterize this move as an attempt to "deliver" the Texas delegation into the hands of Governor Smith. Governor Moody has taken no stand on the question of whether the Texas delegation shall go to the national convention instructed or otherwise. Many Texans believe that if

SUIT STARTED FOR HEIRS OF CAP. STREETER

Want to Be Plaintiffs In Suit For 345 Millions
In Property

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Heirs of the late "Captain" George Wellington Streeter will "go to bat" here in federal court Jan. 18 for the right to have their names substituted as plaintiffs in the suit which he started before his death to obtain title to $345,000,000 worth of property which he termed the "Deestrick of Chicago."

The "captain" claimed all property bounded by Lake Michigan, the Chicago River and Lake Shore Drive comprising some of the most valuable land in Chicago. He based his action upon the fact that he and "Ma" Streeter settled there as squatters decades ago. Defendants of the suit include the City of Chicago, the Lincoln Park commission board and the Chicago Title and Trust company.

Streeterville Battle
"Captain" Streeter called the property "Streeterville" and first began his battle for the land in 1889. The property was built up from natural sand deposits and the contents of dump wagons. Included in its 186 acres today are the Drake Hotel, one of Chicago's finest hotels, the Navy Pier, formerly the Municipal Pier, luxurious apartment buildings and the private homes of many millionaires including the land of Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick.

For years "Captain" and "Ma" Streeter defended their claims from the deck of their houseboat, the "Vamoose," with the aid of shotguns, pistols and other weapons when police and city authorities sought to oust them.

Federal Judges Alschuler and Page, before the hearing date was set, questioned their own right to pass judgment in the case since they had heard some of the evidence years ago. Attorneys for both sides, however, assured them they would not object to them sitting on the present motion.

Now 22 Heirs
The list of heirs numbers twenty-two including a brother, Victor Streeter, of Chicago.

Although "Captain" Streeter fought for years against the combined forces of city and harbor police, he was finally ousted shortly before his death. He held sovereign reign over the barren sandy wastes which later became the exclusive residential section of Chicago.

Lawyers who have spent years in examining the claims of the self-styled captain, admitted his legal right is somewhat justified and that he had an excellent chance of obtaining a judgment. Realtors have placed estimates as high as a half billion dollars upon the property.

COURT NEWS

Four Divorce Petitions
Mrs. Helen Sheffield of East Liverpool, has asked the court for a divorce from Edward Sheffield, who is now serving a term of from one to twenty years in the Ohio penitentiary, sent there through the common pleas court here last spring for forgery.

They were married, the wife states, on May 23, 1920, in Pittsburgh, and their two children, Helen Kathleen, 3, and Nina Helen, 22 months, are with her. They lived in East Liverpool together until last January, 1927, when Sheffield was arrested and convicted of the crime of forgery. Mrs. Sheffield asks for divorce and the custody of her children.

Etta A. Burns, of East Palestine, filed suit in the common pleas court against Pete Burns, who is now living at Elton, Ohio, asking that she be granted a divorce on grounds of extreme cruelty. She states in the petition that he struck and choked her on different occasions, and that on December 5, after abusing her, ordered her to leave. She left on December 25 through fear that he would do her bodily harm. They have no children.

Mike Winkler, of Salem, has brought action seeking a divorce from his wife, Eleanor M. Winkler, charging her with gross neglect of duty and unfaithfulness. They were married on May 7, 1921 in Lisbon

They were married on October 14, 1914 and have one son, Louis. The plaintiff wants a divorce and the custody of the child.

Sues Auto Driver

Dr. H. W. Bennett of Lisbon, has been sued in the common pleas court by A. L. Denkhous of Lisbon for $207.92 for the damage done to a truck owned by the plaintiff on the Canton hill just west of Lisbon on the morning of November 25 last.

The big truck owned by Denkhous was being driven on the hill by Roy Kuhns who is in the employ of the plaintiff, and he states that just as he was passing the driveway into the William E. Kemble home, Dr. Bennett without any warning or signal of his intention, backed from the driveway right into the main highway and into the path of the truck. In order to avoid hitting and seriously injuring him or killing him, Kuhns says, he applied his brakes to the truck, when the heavy machine skidded on the slippery hill and went into the ditch and overturned.

The truck was damaged to the extent asked in judgment, it is stated, and it is claimed that the accident was due solely to the carelessness of Dr. Bennett.

Sues For Labor

William H. Knepper has filed action in the common pleas court against M. G. Martin and Raymond Kaul, doing business as the M. G. Martin Coal company near Wellsville, asking judgment for $224.45 which he claims is due him for work and labor performed for the company. The court is also asked by the plaintiff to enjoin the company from selling a truck during the pendency of the case.

Files $585 Claim

W. J. Woodward of Leetonia, wants the court to give him judgment against Harry Ready of that village for $585.13 which he claims is due on an account for work and labor performed and material furnished to the defendant.

Two Divorces Granted

Judge Jones granted a divorce to Harry Wedgwood of East Liverpool, from his wife, Anna, to whom he was married more than five years ago. The divorce was granted because of unfaithfulness. They had no children and separated last March.

Roxanna Wood Michaels, colored, of Lisbon, was granted a divorce in court Tuesday from Robert E. Michaels on grounds of gross neglect of duty. They were married September 1, 1884, in North Carolina, and have four children, all being of legal age. Mrs. Michaels told the court that her husband had failed to provide for her for the last 30 years.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

125 KILLED IN AIR ACCIDENTS

Hundred Injured, Reports
Show; Weather Caused
Few Accidents

Washington, Jan. 12.—Casualties resulting from aircraft accident in 1927 were estimated at 125 dead and about 100 injured by the commerce department aeronautical division today.

Exact figures for the first 10 months of the year gave 108 dead and 88 injured. Inspectors, charged with reporting all accidents to the commerce department, have not completed their November and December data.

Deaths and injuries in attempted trans-oceanic flights are not included.

With about 4,000 airplanes in the hands of civilians up to January 10, 2,900 had been licensed by the commerce department.

By the middle of the year it was expected that virtually all pilots and planes engaged in interstate commerce would be licensed. An investigation showed that 78 of the aircraft accidents in the first 10 months of the year resulted from errors in pilotage, or the human element. To failures of motors were attributed 41 accidents while structural failures caused 23. The weather was blamed for only nine airplane smashes.

English Women Now Use Pin Money To Dabble In Stocks

London, Jan. 12.—Share-gambling is becoming increasingly popular among Englishwomen.

Many Englishwomen with moderate means, according to brokers, are now dabbling in stocks and shares and thereby augmenting—or losing—their pin-money.

According to the brokers, the women gamblers are usually very lucky, and cases of running losses are rare.

"They buy a few shares in rubber, or some other commodity which is apt to fluctuate," said a broker. "Then, on the advice of a friend, they sell when the time is ripe."

"Some of them get to know the state of the various markets, and with capital of anything from $100 to $500, they are able to buy and sell with a net profit of anything from $10 to $50 a week on the average."

Rio De Janeiro—A child whose first need in this world was a shave or a beard trim, was born at Propria City, Sergipe province, according to reports from the city. The child, reports said, was born with a mustache and full beard. The child's father is a farmer, not a barber.

HEALTH HINTS For Parents

Here's a way to make the most delicate boy hale and hearty, and "hard as nails." A way to build his body, and put on weight. Heed this hint, and no boy or girl of yours need ever take another cathartic!

Most ailments of children begin with being bilious; end the trouble then and there, with a spoonful of California Fig Syrup. Nothing stronger, nothing else. The bowels will do their duty without using force! If your children have already contracted the laxative habit, fig syrup will wear them away from it.

California Fig Syrup is a purely vegetable product. It will do any child a world of good; it is, in fact, a very wonderful conditioner for children or adults. Its rich, fruity flavor is so delicious, it's no hardship to take! Nor can it harm even an infant! Only one caution, be sure to get the genuine California Fig Syrup; don't neglect to say "California." It isn't expensive—sixty cents for a generous bottle at all dealers.

Try California Fig Syrup two weeks on any child, and let his altered appearance and actions tell the full story. Adv
